Dear Montbello Community:

Effective today, the Denver Public Schools has placed Principal Peter Mosby on paid administrative leave as the district conducts a thorough review of leadership and school-improvement programs at Montbello High School.

We have high expectations for our schools and our principals, and we feel this step is necessary to ensure that we continue to see progress at Montbello in its service to our students and the community.

As of today, Richard Smith is serving as Interim Principal at Montbello. Richard is a longtime DPS leader who served as an Assistant Superintendent for the Far Northeast Region before retiring in 2005. He knows the Montbello community well, and I have tremendous confidence in his ability to provide strong leadership at the school while the district does a careful review of the situation.

We will continue to keep you updated as decisions are made, and please don't hesitate to contact my office if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Antwan Wilson
